

Letter of Recommendation

Letters of Recommendation must include the following:

1. Applicant's Name
2. Name of person writing letter
3. How long person has known applicant
4. Describe the applicant's strengths. Consider how these strengths will help him/her as an RDI® Consultant.
5. Describe the applicant's obstacles. Consider how these obstacles may impact the applicant's growth as an Consultant and how he/she may address them.

If the Applicant is a parent of a child on the spectrum, this letter of recommendation must be from his/her RDI® Program Consultant. The consultant's letter must include the items above as well as the following:

Consultant must affirm:

- This applicant and spouse have met regularly (every two weeks) with the consultant over the last six months.
- This applicant and spouse have progressed through the Family Consultation Program in a way that shows:
  - They understand the mission and design of the program
  - They have become good apprentices themselves
  - They have successfully addressed any parent obstacles that would impede becoming a good guide
- This applicant and spouse have maintained a subscription on the RDI Learning community and consistently use the tools and resources found there for their work n the FCP